

Research Award

Description

The Research Award is given to an RMT in Canada who demonstrates leadership and encourages and participates in research that has a positive impact on the profession.

The RMT is recognized for any of the following:

- A peer reviewed work or a body of work with corresponding publication(s) in a professional/scientific journal
- Presentation(s) of professional work provincially, nationally and/or internationally
- Promotion of research itself and the application of research findings to the clinical setting (knowledge transfer)
- Facilitation of research in a clinical setting that involves the profession

Nominations

There will be a call for nominations made by the Board of Directors. Submissions may be received from members of the RMTAO, non-members, or anyone currently active in the research community. The individual nominating the member will be asked to send in a copy of the publications and or account for the work within the field of research for the betterment of the profession on the award application form.

Selection Process

The Membership and Elections Committee will review the nominations put forward through the call for nominations from the Board of Directors. Once this process has taken place, the Membership and Elections Committee will put forward four (4) candidates to the Board of Directors for their review and selection.
